

For Immediate Release

NIEZIROWSKI AND SANDRIN MVP'S AT LOYOLA

Steve Niezirowski and Claudio Sandrin have concluded their playing days at Loyola in an auspicious manner by winning the coveted MVP awards in football and soccer respectively.

Steve, 5'10", 200 lbs. from Toronto has played four standout years of varsity ball all at the offensive guard position. Co-captain for the past two years, Steve's aggressiveness and blocking ability earned him the most valuable player, being voted by the players themselves with the unanimous backing of the coaching staff. Steve is one of the few linemen to win the Charlie Haynes M.V.P. Memorial Trophy and by his performance this year, is justly deserving of it.

Claudio Sandrin, for the second consecutive year has captured the most valuable award on Loyola's winning soccer team. He was also captain of this year's Ottawa St. Lawrence League Championship Team. Claudio, ^{was} one of the team's top scorers. But it was his fine defensive play that won him the beautiful Suinaga Trophy donated by the former Mexican Ambassador to Canada and Loyola Hall of Famer, His Excellency Pedro Suinaga Lujan for the second time.